Diamond in the Rough

— In need of some finishing touches, this spacious home could be quite the showpiece. Wonderful bamboo floors, knotty-pine ceilings with exposed beams, and featured lighting provide great bones for this space. The main living area is a roomy living and dining area combination with deck access. The kitchen has high-end, Jenn-Air appliances. The master bedroom has a stately bathroom with a rain shower and Toto toilet. Two other bedrooms are on the far end of the house for privacy. The second bathroom has a shower over tub set-up and the laundry rests in a large closet space. There is an addition office space just inside the entry. Outside is multi-level decking overlooking the meadow below. There is a large detached, two-car garage, fruit trees, a pump house and water storage tank. The home sits back off the road on a paved drive for added privacy. Could this be your diamond in the rough?
